

The International Pre-Autistic Network has generously offered a 25% discount for the next ten places.

To apply for this offer, go online www.infantmentalhealth.com by the 1st June 2010.

BABY BRAINS: Research on the effects of trauma, music, movement and temperament on the developing brain and mind in the first year of life

TWO-DAY WORKSHOP WITH:

Professor Colwyn Trevarthen, Professor (Emeritus) of Child Psychology & Psychobiology at the University of Edinburgh
'The Rhythm of Companionship: Creative fun and shared intentions in the growing brains and emotional lives of infants'

Dr Jonathan Delafield-Butt, Neurobiologist and Psychologist, Babylab, University of Copenhagen
'Moving Mind and Brain in the First Year of Life'

Ricky Emanuel, Head of Child Psychotherapy Services, The Royal Free NHS Trust
'The relevance of Neuroscience in understanding and working with Early Traumatic Experiences'

Professor Vasudevi Reddy, Professor of Developmental and Cultural Psychology, University of Portsmouth
'Engagement and Awareness'

Professor Maria Tallandini, Professor of Developmental Psychology at the University of Trieste, Italy - Senior Lecturer of Developmental Psychology at University College London
'Close Up and Personal, research into "Kangaroo Care" in a premature unit'

Dr Isabel Jimenez, PhD, HRV Temperament Consultant, Scientific Psychologist, Developmental Therapist
'Temperament Origins and Uses'

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION FORM, PLEASE CONTACT:

THE SCHOOL OF INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

27 Frognal, London NW3 6AR

Phone: +44 (0) 20 7433 3112

Email: enquiries@infantmentalhealth.com

www.infantmentalhealth.com

THE SCHOOL OF INFANT MENTAL HEALTH

Invite you to join us for a workshop in:

The Langorf Hotel
20 Frognal, London NW3 6AG

Saturday/Sunday

12th-13th June 2010

Saturday: 11.00 to 19.00 hours
Sunday: 11.00 to 18.00 hours

COST: £190 per delegate
12 CPD Credits